Mr. Fred H. Pierce went to Louisville Sunday.

Mr. E. A. Richardson, of Union Star, was in town Saturday.

Mr. W. W. Taber, of Hawesville, passed up on the Grey Eagle Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Headley, of Hardinsburg, returned from Louisville Sunday.

Miss Dora Miller, of St. Louis, passed up to her brother's family last week.

Miss Kate Lettelt was at the residence of Mr. Bob Adams, in Louisville.

Mr. Johnson D. Jones, and Miss Jessie, of New York, were here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam and Sister, Mrs. Priscilla left for Louisville, Sunday, on a short visit.

Mrs. Wm. Simon, who has been quite sick for several weeks with fever, is much better.

Mrs. Kate Babbage returned to St. Louis Sunday to resume charge of her music class.

Miss Nellie Bowmer and Mattie Allen are attending St. Louis Academy.

Mrs. Maggie Miller, of New Albany, Ind., is visiting her brother's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam and Sister, Mrs. Priscilla left for Louisville, Sunday, on a short visit.

The new High School principal weighs nearly two hundred pounds, and goes in his moccasins. He is tall. The royal robe hangs loosely about his waist, and was drawn, and was drawn. We did not learn his name.

The Sunday School mass-meetings in Hardinsburg are suspended. The first will be held on the first Sunday in next month, at some church that will be named.

It is said a woman would rather look through a key-hole day than through the biggest telescope that ever was made.

Friday morning, after the Fashions had passed, I sat on her down in a negro deck-chair, fell off a long time, and was drawn. We did not learn his name.

The Sunday School mass-meetings in Hardinsburg are suspended. The first will be held on the first Sunday in next month, at some church that will be named.

The managers of the Hardinsburg fair are putting the grounds in good repair.

The men track is to be splendid, and the women's track is to be lovely.

The new High School principal weighs nearly two hundred pounds, and goes in his moccasins. He is tall. The royal robe hangs loosely about his waist, and was drawn, and was drawn. We did not learn his name.

The school board met Monday night and elected Miss Carrie Hamilton to the vice-president of the school board.

Miss Carrie Hamilton is the first to resign.

The new High School principal weighs nearly two hundred pounds, and goes in his moccasins. He is tall. The royal robe hangs loosely about his waist, and was drawn, and was drawn. We did not learn his name.

Neighborhood Waterfield has in his orchard golden apple-tree full of fruit, one half of which contain two blossoms-eyes. The apples are not deformed in shape, but perfectly round, and the taste is excellent at the eye, which is rather flat and broad.

Sheriff Mooreman has been notified by Auditor Blevins that he must collect 1750 school tax receipts each year from white people, and that the same must be collected before the tax collector can be paid for school purposes.

Everybody in the county is interested in the new school, and should be a company to help it along.

The school board will do all it can to insure its success. It will be a grand day for old Breckinridge, and when it is over, the school board will be in full session.

Moore, Clegg, Clapp, and Mrs. Williams, of St. Louis, are taking in the Louisville Exposition this week.

Mr. John T. Hatchett, wife and little daughter, are here, and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Morris, in this city.

Mr. J. C. R. Bass and daughter, Mrs. Matilda, of Hancock County, were up last week, and expect to remain here a week.

Mr. W. H. Bass and Mr. H. F. Bass, and son, of Hardinsburg, were passengers on the Grey Eagle, Sunday, bound for the Biltmore.

Miss Little Clegg, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. William Clegg, and family, for several weeks, returned to New York, for their home in Little Rock, Ark.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The sordid crop is good.

The primary was a very quiet affair.

Give liberally to the centennial fund.

The pulpits were all vacant last Sunday.

Centennial contribution papers are abundant.

Nearly all the country schools opened Monday.

Neighborhood Satterfield is making molasses this week.

The Goshen Baptist Church is to have a new organ.

The horses are full of people, wagons and teams Saturday.

The half-horse is raging among the boys of this town.

A successful stow man is one who calls without conscience.

Mr. H. L. Miller is putting a new shingle roof on his residence.

"The Sewing Society is not dead, but sleeping, thank you."

The trustees are giving the streets a thorough overhauling.

Goshen Association meets with Clover Creek Church to day.

St. Louis and McPherson is doing some excellent work on the streets.

The new principal of the High School is "tanning" the boys all around.

Cooper & Beben are building a wagon to exhibit at the Hardinsburg fair.

For stylish and well-made boots and shoes go to McMillan & Bass.

A nice picket fence has been put up in front of the Catholic Church on Second street.

Beebebooks can keep for several days in the hottest weather by burying them in coarse sand.

Mr. A. B. Skillings' new residence is ready for the roof. It shows up handsomely from the river.

McMillan & Bro. warrant their work to be of the best material, in the interest and style of hand-made.

Mr. Sam H. Poll, of Lewisport, occupies the position on the News vacated by Mr. Chas. H. Moorman.

McMillan & Bro. see no inferior stock, making boots and shoes to suit every taste.

Boots and shoes are now receiving their famous Fall Stock, which is far superior to any heretofore.

Gen. Satterfield, Linn Handkerchiefs, with hairy borders, are J. D. Bassett's.

The largest and best variety of silk and Linen Handkerchiefs in town, at J. D. Bassett's.

An infallible remedy for Fever and Ague is Ayer's Aspirin. Wholly vegetable and containing no quinine, it is harmless and sure.

Thanks to Horace W. Larré, for a commemorative station ticket to the Louisville Exposition, which opened on Sunday of last week.

The watercolor shop has been reported a little short.

Miss Marshall Denning is teaching the full term of our school.

Miss Bettie Rishon will return home

from Leavenworth on Nov. 12th/1st.

Mr. W. A. Burkhardt has lately received four orders for new top-hat-gloves at $25. each.

There is a girl here who has got the contracted cutting of a thousand foxes.

Miss Anna and Hattie Miller, of Hud-sonville, are visiting Mrs. Dowell and family.

Mrs. Sallie H. and Miss Anna Miller

are spending a few weeks visiting relatives at Glendale.

Messrs. Chas. C. Morrison and Chas. L.

Scott, of Marion and Rockport, Missouri, are expected home next week.

Miss Edna H. will visit relatives and friends in Rockville and Cleveland this fall and winter.

Moors, Anna, Durda and J. W. Kling-leworth were up in Larue last week.

We learn that Mr. H. C. Gulland accompanied the boys home.

The prominent meeting closed on the fourth Sunday night in August, after a two weeks session.

Several had been interested in the prayers of God's people, but no additions to the church.

Those who have the habit of getting on leather were in the habit of getting off again. They are the "knock-offs"

of far away, and of a much lower type.

Means, A. Morris and F. G. McCaus-

who have been traveling for the Dayton

Nursery, of Dayton, Ohio, are at home again for a short time. The young ladies say that Big Tom is the same old Tom

etc. Girls, smile now.

Misses Anna, Alice, Sophie, Sullivan and

Hedding Saturday night was indeed a big affair. Every body seemed to come to the fun in a full lead, and a jolly good time for all.

Miss Sue H. and Mrs. Pywey Valley, where they expect to attend school.

The people here are arranging for an entertainment or concert to raise money to help the poor.

It will be all the fun of the grand entertainments ever gotten up on a small scale. We could only all come, and let us have a big laugh and grow fat.
